About the producer

Excellence since 1933. Orfée's ambition is to share their values, know-how and philosophy through exceptional wines. They choose the best plots of land and manage them in the most natural way. From generation to generation, the winegrowers have passed down their experience and know-how, making Orfée one of the finest wineries of the Languedoc and Corbières wine region. Wine lovers, wine merchants and even the best sommelier of the world, Andreas Larsson, praise the quality of their wines. Over the last 5 years, Celliers d'Orfée have won more than 210 medals and in 2021 were one of the most awarded wineries in France.

Wine growing / wine making

Harvest entirely destemmed. Traditional vinification, matured in vats to retain all freshness and fruit clarity.

Tasting notes

Bright, clear ruby colour. Intense nose of red fruits and violets. Round and full on the palate, followed by an explosion of red fruit. Beautiful harmony with soft tannins.

Food pairing

Steak pie, red peppers and tomatoes stuffed with garlic, rosemary, thyme and rice, chicken with lentils, charcuterie.
